ALLIED FLEETS POUNDING AWAY

Reduce More Turkish Forts on the Dardanelles.

OUTRANGE LAND BATTERIES

Guns on Warships Are Said to Be Delivering an Effective Fire—Over Forty Large Battleships, Many Small Cruisers, Destroyers and Other Craft Taking Part in Operations.

London, March 4.—A dispatch to Reuter's Telegram company from Athens says:

"The allied fleet bombarded and reduced to silence the forts at Dardanus, Hamidieh and Tchemerlik, on the Asiatic side of the inside Dardanelles.

"The telegraph station at Bezikia also was demolished.

"The bombardment was carried out by nine ships, which advanced two miles up the straits."

A Constantinople dispatch, dated March 2, received by the Reuter Telegram company by way of Amsterdam, confirms the announcement that some of the forts on the European side of the Dardanelles have suffered severely by the fire of the allied battleships.

"The British battleships," says this dispatch, "completely outranged the forts, the guns of which were unable to reply effectively, so that the battleships gained part of the desired effects."

"The fleet has received reinforcements and now more than forty big battleships are lying off the Dardanelles, besides a great number of small cruisers, torpedo boat destroyers and other craft."

The admiralty issued the following report:

"Four of the French battleships operated off Dulair and bombarded the batteries and communications.

"The operations at the entrance of the straits already reported have resulted in the destruction of nineteen guns, ranging from 6 to 11 inches, eleven guns below 7 inches, four Nordenfolt guns and two searchlights. The magazines of forts 6 and 3 also have been demolished.

"The Russian cruiser Askold has joined the allied fleet off the Dardanelles."

BELIEVE DARDANELLES SAFE

Chance for Allied Success Held "Rather Weak" by Germans.

Berlin, March 4.—The chance of success for the Anglo-French fleet which is attacking the Dardanelles is considered by Major Morant, military critic of the Berliner Tageblatt, to be "rather weak." He says that the destruction of all the fortifications on both sides of the straits would not permit passage of the fleet or an invasion by land, since it would be necessary to free the waters of mines and subdue the Turkish land forces.

The allies, Major Morant argues, would be unable to bring up land forces of sufficient strength for successful operations, whereas the Turks have strong forces available.

FRENCH OFFICIAL REPORT

Says Warships Are Making Progress in Dardanelles.

Paris, March 4.—The French minister of marine issued the following communication:

"The operations of the Anglo-French fleet against the Dardanelles continue. A French division, under Rear Admiral Guopratte, operated in the Gulf of Caros against the forts and the Bulair lines. The French battleship Suffren effectively bombarded the Sultan fort and the battleship Gaulois set fire to the barracks of Fort Napoleon. The garrisons evacuated the works.

"The battleship Bouvet seriously damaged the bridge over the Kavak river."

DESTROYS TWO BATTERIES

Allied Fleet Has Arrived Near the Dardanelles.

London, March 4.—According to dispatches received here from Mytiline and Tenedos islands, says Reuter's Athens correspondent, the allied fleet has destroyed the batteries of Kiliid Bahr and Kanakale and arrived near Dardanelles.

There are more than 100,000 Turks on the Gallipoli coast under Issad Pasha.

The village of Yenishahr is reported to have been destroyed by fire.

Grand Jury Indicts Him
for Transporting Dynamite.

Boston, March 4.—Three indictments charging the illegal transportation of dynamite in interstate commerce have been returned by the federal grand jury against Werner Horn, who attempted to destroy the international railway bridge at Vanceboro, Me., on Feb. 2. The maximum penalty for the offense is eighteen months' imprisonment and a fine of $2,000.

RESOLUTION AIMS TO MAINTAIN NEUTRALITY

Both Houses Act to Enlarge President's Powers.

Washington, March 4.—By unanimous vote the senate adopted a substitute for a joint resolution passed earlier in the house enlarging the power of the president to prevent violations of the American neutrality by vessels leaving ports of the United States with men or supplies for belligerent warships.

The senate substitute later was agreed to in the house. The resolution now goes to President Wilson for his signature.

The joint resolution adopted by the house authorizes the refusal of clearance to American ships suspected of loading men or supplies for belligerent warships. It also provides for the internment of foreign merchantmen engaging in such traffic and would impose heavy penalties for violations.

The resolution was drafted by officials of the department of justice and the state department.

In the house the measure was put through promptly, Republican Leader Mann joining Majority Leader Underwood in urging action without delay.

The resolution is to take effect immediately and continue "during the existence of a war to which the United States is not a party."

GREEKS ARE RESTIVE FOR INTERVENTION.

Athens, March 4.—Greek public opinion, which is following the bombardment of the Dardanelles with liveliest emotion, is becoming daily more restive in favor of Greek intervention and even the government press urges immediate action. Hestia, the most cautious of government papers, points out that while Roumania and Bulgaria might possibly receive compensation for mere neutrality Greece cannot hope to obtain recognition of her historic national rights unless she espouses the cause of the triple entente.

British Cruiser Damaged.

Amsterdam, March 4.—The Berliner Tageblatt's Constantinople correspondent says the British cruiser Zepher was badly damaged in the Dardanelles bombardment and was taken to Saloniki with 150 men wounded.

SENTENCED, ENDS HIS LIFE

Montana Man Had Sworn to Commit Suicide.

Butte, Mont., March 4.—Dave Murray, convicted of highway robbery, committed suicide in his cell shortly after he had been sentenced to serve twenty-five years in the state prison. Murray was a former convict and had sworn never to return to the penitentiary.

A woman is suspected of having furnished Murray with a razor.

St. Paul, March 4.—Women's suffrage was defeated in the senate today by a vote of 33 to 34.

GIVES PRESIDENT GREAT POWER

(By United Press)

Washington, March 4.—President Wilson has signed the joint neutrality resolution authorizing him to direct collectors of revenues to withhold papers of any vessels suspected of carrying munitions of war to belligerents. Officials assert that without question this resolution gives the president power to declare war.

TRIED TO KILL CROWN PRINCE

(By United Press)

Cettinje, Montenegro, March 4.—Two Austrian aviators made an unsuccessful attempt to assassinate the crown prince amid members of his own family, say dispatches from Antivari this afternoon. The aviators hurled bombs at the villa in the suburbs of Antivari where Prince Danilo was at the time, but without damage.

TURKISH FLEET FLED IN FOG

(By United Press)

London, March 4.—Dispatches from Athens say that the Turkish fleet assigned to defend the approaches at Niagra Roads fled during the night under cover of a heavy fog, slipping off unnoticed, and when the fog lifted this morning it was discovered that the defending Turkish ships had gone. Turkish aviators were noticed last Sunday scouting the entire day above the allied fleet and it is believed that the Turks will make a stand at the very approaches of Constantinople and then if forced to retreat it can be made safely into the Black sea through the Bosphorus.

AN ALL DAY BLOODY FIGHT

(By United Press)

Berlin, March 4.—The war department of Germany admits that 40,000 German troops narrowly escaped capture or annihilation by the Russians in the recent fighting around Prezasnyez, and only by desperate fighting and forced marches did the Germans extricate themselves. Following an easy victory on the outskirts the Germans closed in on the town when they were surrounded by 18,000 Russians and bloody fighting continued all day. Toward night the Germans cut their way out, abandoning the dead and wounded.

GARDNER PLEDGED FOR SUFFRAGE

(By United Press)

St. Paul, March 4.—Fearing that a vote on the Hynes semi-monthly pay bill would be forced upon them before the woman suffrage bill came up, opponents of the pay bill by a lengthy filibuster on the Handlan bull-frog bill proceeded to flag the measure. An effort was made to induce Senator Gardner, of Crow Wing county, sponsor for the semi-monthly pay day bill, who is pledged to suffrage, to break with the suffrage forces by holding the vote in opposition over him. The Handlan bill was referred to the game and fish committee just before the suffrage debate started at 11 o'clock. The Handlan bill is the most inconsequential in the legislature.

Crews of Steamers Safe

(By United Press)

Santiago, March 4.—The crews of the French bark Joan and British steamer Kinaldon which were sunk January 1, were landed safely at Easter Island, according to a statement from the navy department this afternoon. Further details of the affair were prevented by the censor, although it is assumed that these ships were sunk by the German raiders, probably by the Karls Ruhe as that vessel is reported in South American waters.

CONGRESS ENDS WITH TURMOIL

(By United Press)

Washington, March 4.—In turmoil, unprecedented, congestion and a mad scramble to avoid an extra session, the 63rd congress—a record breaker in many respects—expired by limitation at noon today. The day dawned with the body in session and all preparations for the adjournment. The president this morning signed the seamen's bill.

Senator Gronna this morning led the objection to the Indian appropriation bill, objecting strenuously to the items for Indian attorneys and allowances for certain Indian tribes. The clause in the postoffice appropriation bill providing for abolishing the office of assistant postmasters was eliminated.

The usual scenes of leavetaking, mixed with pathos and hilarity, were enacted, but tempered by the pressing demands for consideration of real business, piled upon Congress during the last ten days because of the ship purchase bill filibuster.

Government money was appropriated today in the final rush at the rate of millions an hour. Conference reports on the appropriation bills, held up the last minute, were hurriedly exchanged between the two houses and as hastily approved. Bustle and excitement marked the closing hours of both houses. The full membership of both was present. The turmoil was more subdued in the Senate; but scenes of hilarious jollity marked the House proceedings. "Swan songs" were sung by retiring members. Resolutions of felicity were given Speaker Clark and the party leaders. A costly oil painting of himself was the members gift to the retiring Democratic Leader, Rep. Underwood.

In time consumed the Congress which ended today smashed records. It had been in session 637 days. The special session called in April, 1913, leaped into the December session that year which continued until last October, adjourning only five weeks before the present session began last December.

The principal accomplishments of the Sixty-third congress were the following laws:

New tariff and income tax.
New currency system.
Creating a federal trade commission.
Amending the anti-trust act.
Repeal of the Panama canal "free tolls" provision.
Authorizing a government railroad in Alaska.
Empowering use of armed forces in Mexico.
The war tax.
Creating a war risk insurance bureau.
Ratification of 21 peace treaties.

Another spectacular innovation inaugurated by President Wilson was his custom of delivering messages in person to Congress.

With the echo of the adjournment gavel today many big figures in public life retired. Nine senators and nearly 150 representatives left the congress today. The senators retired today were Senators Root, Bristow, Burton, Stephenson, Perkins, Crawford, Thornton, Camden and White.

Among the prominent members who left the house today were Democratic Leader Underwood and Rep. Broussard who go to the senate; progressive Leader Victor Murdock, and Reps. Hulyrley, Neely of Kansas, A. Mitchell Palmer, Burke of Penn., Burke of S. D., Stevens of Minn., Metz Henry George, Jr., Ainey, Bowdler, Goldfogle, Knowland of Cal., Beall of Tex., Bartlett of Ga. Bartholdt, Hobson and Stanley.

The Senate had today 53 Democratic, 42 Republicans and one Progressive member. The Sixty-fourth Congress will see 56 Democratic, one progressive and 39 senators seated.

The house today had 286 Democrats, 124 Republicans, 17 Progressives and one independent. The next house will have 231 Democrats, 194 Republicans, 7 Progressives, 1 socialist and 1 independent.

10,000 PRISONERS 30,000 ARE KILLED

(By United Press)

Capetown, South Africa, March 4.—An official statement says that 10,000 Boers were imprisoned and 30,000 killed on both sides during the recent uprising there. On account of the large number they were not all punished at the same time.

SHIP PURCHASE BILL IS KILLED

Measure Dies in Congress Without Final Struggle.

RURAL CREDITS ALSO FAILS

Senate Passes Omnibus Civil War Claims Bill, Carrying Two Million Dollars—Conferees Agree on Postoffice Appropriation Measure, Last of the Supply Bills in Conference.

Washington, March 4.—The Sixty-third congress strenuously worked its way toward its end.

Weary and worn senators and representatives pressed on under the eyes of hundreds of spectators, who crowded the galleries of both house and senate chambers and overflowed into the corridors.

Both branches handled a flood of bills, resolutions and conference reports in a desperate effort to pass all necessary legislation before adjournment.

In the fading hours of the session there died without a final struggle the government ship purchase bill, the object of the most determined filibuster ever undertaken in congress of opposition which, begun by Republican senators, extended into the Democratic ranks and precipitated a revolt that aided in the obstruction of much important legislation urged by President Wilson and administration leaders.

Soon after this measure had been shunted into the discard for the session the rural credit legislation, which at the eleventh hour had been attached to the agricultural appropriation bill, also was abandoned because of impossibility of agreement on the part of senate and house conferees.

The senate passed the omnibus Civil war claims bill, carrying approximately $2,000,000, with an amendment by Senator Crawford which would make such claims hereafter not subject to findings by the court of claims.

An agreement on the postoffice appropriation bill, the last of the supply measures in conference, was reached by the conferees. Provision for the space basis of payment for railway mail service was retained. The proposed abolition of assistant postmasters was eliminated.

DANIELS LAUDS NAVY BILL

"Most Liberal Measure for Increase and Support Ever Enacted."

Washington, March 4.—Secretary Daniels in a statement analyzed the constructive features in the naval appropriation bill and characterized it as the "most liberal measure for the increase and support of the navy ever enacted."

The Sixty-third congress, Mr. Daniels said, had been more generous than any other, having provided $86,145,555 for new ships—over $30,250,000 more than the preceding congress appropriated.

Five dreadnoughts—an entire division—were provided for in two bills.

SUFFRAGISTS AND DRYS WIN

South Dakota Voters Will Pass on Equal Ballot and Prohibition.

Pierre, S. D., March 4.—South Dakota voters will pass on amendments for statewide prohibition and full suffrage for women at the 1916 election, as the result of action taken in the legislature.

The lower body adopted the resolution submitting the prohibition amendment. This had been acted on favorably in the senate. The senate accepted the suffrage amendment, which had been adopted by the house.

The house also passed the Crawford primary law and the general appropriation bill.

German General Killed.

Berlin, March 4.—Major General Ludwig von Estoff has been killed in Russia at the head of his brigade.

AWARD TO WIDOW UPHELD

Woman Recovers for Fatal Injury in Basketball Game.

Madison, Wis., March 4.—The supreme court has upheld the award under the workmen's compensation act to Mrs. Amalia Torney, widow of a school principal who died from the effects of injuries caused by a basketball which struck him while he was playing with his pupils.

This work was authorized by the school board and, it was contended, was part of Torney's duties. The accident occurred in May, 1912. The widow was awarded the full compensation of $2,000.

House Committee Makes Gift to Retiring Minnesotan.

Washington, March 4.—Representative Frederick C. Stevens of Minnesota was presented with a pair of gold cuff buttons by members of the house committee on interstate and foreign commerce as a token of their esteem. Mr. Stevens retires from congress after twelve years' continuous service of this committee.

The presentation address was made by Representative Charles Adamson, chairman. James R. Mann, minority leader, also eulogized Mr. Stevens for long and faithful service. Mr. Stevens has been in congress eighteen years.

The presentation address was made by Representative Charles Adamson, chairman. James R. Mann, minority leader, also eulogized Mr. Stevens for long and faithful service. Mr. Stevens has been in congress eighteen years.

SUSPECTS ALLEGE CASE IS FRAMEUP

New York Bomb Throwers Accuse Detective.

New York, March 4.—"Framed up" by their supposed comrade, Detective Poligani, the brains of the St. Patrick's cathedral bomb conspiracy.

This was the way Frank Abarno and Charles Carbone stated their side of the case after they had been arraigned and remanded to jail, charged with having plotted to explode two bombs in St. Patrick's.

The indictments charge the two with having placed a bomb in a public place in violation of the penal law. They will plead Friday. The maximum penalty is twenty-five years in prison.

Detective Poligani was known to the alleged dynamiters as Frank Baldo. The latter, they asserted, originated and planned the details of the conspiracy.

NO CANAL TRIP FOR WILSON

Congress Eliminates Appropriation for Celebration.

Washington, March 4.—President Wilson practically decided to abandon his contemplated trip to the Panama canal in July because of the action of congress in eliminating from the legislative and executive bill the appropriation for the celebration of the formal opening of the canal.

He still is undecided about the trip to San Francisco this month.

KILLED ON WAY TO WAR

Rancher, Stowaway in Ship's Bunker, Crushed by Impouring Coal.

Glendive, Mont., March 4.—Determined to join the German army, his family believe, Charles L. Hauser, a rancher, left Glendive three weeks ago, stowed himself in a coal bunker of a vessel in the East that was about to sail for Europe and was crushed to death when fuel was poured into the ship's hold.

Hauser recently remarked that the Germans appeared to be hard pressed and that it was time for him to go back to fight for the Fatherland.

FAIL TO PIERCE RUSSIAN LINES

Czar's Forces Check Austro-German Armies.

TEUTONS CONTINUE ATTACKS

Object Appears to Be Relief of Przemyśl and to Drive Russians Out of Galicia—Petrograd Official Reports Say the Austrians Have Suffered Heavy Losses.

London, March 4.—In their determination to relieve Przemyśl and drive the Russians out of Galicia the Austro-German armies, which for some drive the Russians out of Galicia the of the Carpathian mountains, during the last few days have made repeated attempts to break through the Russian entrenchments, but without success.

Since Sunday last, when in massed formation they threw themselves against Russian troops holding strong positions, the Austro-Germans have attacked again and again in spite of the heavy losses which this kind of fighting entails.

Regarding the Austrians' attempt to outflank the Russians in Eastern Galicia two Russian official reports in succession have declared that the Austrians suffered a severe reverse and that Tuesday they lost in prisoners alone more than 6,000 men. The Russians also captured a number of guns and a large quantity of transport material.

Germans Silence Forts.

On the other extreme wing in North Poland the Germans either have assumed the defensive or are retiring, except at Ossowetz, where they continue to bombard the fortress. Berlin reports unofficially that at this point the Germans have succeeded in silencing two of the forts. Their attempt to approach the city, however, has been repulsed by the Russians.

The Germans, while claiming success near Augustowo, where they captured 1,500 prisoners from among the Russian forces who tried to cross the Bobr river, admit that they have withdrawn their advance guards south of Myszyniec and that the Russians have been feeling their way forward to the northwest of Przasnysz.

So far as the west is concerned the French offensive in the Champagne region continues to be the outstanding feature of the campaign. The French troops now have reached the highest points on the ground north of Perthes and Beausejour and must be drawing near positions from which they will be able to shell the branch railway that runs to the rear of the German line and maintains communication between the German forces before Rheims and Verdun.

ONE PLEASES OFFICIALS

Text of German Note Arrives at State Department.

Washington, March 4.—The official text of Germany's reply to the suggestions of the United States government with reference to the abandonment of submarine warfare on merchant ships and the shipment of foodstuffs to the civilian population of belligerents was received by the state department.

The German communication is an acquiescence on practically all the points proposed by the United States. Administration officials are pleased both with its tone and its promise of a cessation of submarine warfare on unarmed merchant ships if shipments of food to German civilians are not stopped.

All eyes now are turned on London, where the reply of the allies to the same communication from the United States will be formulated.

LINER FLIES UNION JACK

Captain of Baltic Will Keep British Flag Up.

New York, March 4.—The White Star liner Baltic, carrying 18,000 tons of war supplies, steamed from this port for Liverpool. Its commander, Captain J. B. Ranson, said that as far as he is concerned he "will fly the British flag from America to hell," notwithstanding German submarines. It was said that the Baltic carried in her holds merchandise and foodstuffs sufficient to fill 1,500 freight cars. On her decks were lashed forty semi-armored automobile trucks consigned to the British government for use, it was said, by English troops in France.

10,000 PRISONERS 30,000 ARE KILLED

(By United Press)

Capetown, South Africa, March 4.—An official statement says that 10,000 Boers were imprisoned and 30,000 killed on both sides during the recent uprising there. On account of the large number they were not all punished at the same time.

SHIP PURCHASE BILL IS KILLED

Measure Dies in Congress Without Final Struggle.

RURAL CREDITS ALSO FAILS

Senate Passes Omnibus Civil War Claims Bill, Carrying Two Million Dollars—Conferees Agree on Post-office Appropriation Measure, Last of the Supply Bills in Conference.

Washington, March 4.—The Sixty-third congress strenuously worked its way toward its end.

Weary and worn senators and representatives pressed on under the eyes of hundreds of spectators, who crowded the galleries of both house and senate chambers and overflowed into the corridors.

Both branches handled a flood of bills, resolutions and conference reports in a desperate effort to pass all necessary legislation before adjournment.

In the fading hours of the session there died without a final struggle the government ship purchase bill, the object of the most determined filibuster ever undertaken in congress of opposition which, begun by Republican senators, extended into the Democratic ranks and precipitated a revolt that aided in the obstruction of much important legislation urged by President Wilson and administration leaders.

Soon after this measure had been shunted into the discard for the session the rural credit legislation, which at the eleventh hour had been attached to the agricultural appropriation bill, also was abandoned because of impossibility of agreement on the part of senate and house conferees.

The senate passed the omnibus Civil War claims bill, carrying approximately $2,000,000, with an amendment by Senator Crawford which would make such claims hereafter not subject to findings by the court of claims.

An agreement on the postoffice appropriation bill, the last of the supply measures in conference, was reached by the conferees. Provision for the space basis of payment for railway mail service was retained. The proposed abolition of assistant postmasters was eliminated.

DANIELS LAUDS NAVY BILL

"Most Liberal Measure for Increase and Support Ever Enacted."

Washington, March 4.—Secretary Daniels in a statement analyzed the constructive features in the naval appropriation bill and characterized it as the "most liberal measure for the increase and support of the navy ever enacted."

The Sixty-third congress, Mr. Daniels said, had been more generous than any other, having provided $85,145,555 for new ships—over $30,250,000 more than the preceding congress appropriated.

Five dreadnoughts—an entire division—were provided for in two bills.

SUFFRAGISTS AND DRYS WIN

South Dakota Voters Will Pass on Equal Ballot and Prohibition.

Pierre, S. D., March 4.—South Dakota voters will pass on amendments for statewide prohibition and full suffrage for women at the 1916 election, as the result of action taken in the legislature.

The lower body adopted the resolution submitting the prohibition amendment. This had been acted on favorably in the senate. The senate accepted the suffrage amendment, which had been adopted by the house.

The house also passed the Crawford primary law and the general appropriation bill.

German General Killed.

Berlin, March 4.—Major General Ludwig von Estoff has been killed in Russia at the head of his brigade.

AWARD TO WIDOW UPHELD

Woman Recovers for Fatal Injury in Basketball Game.

Madison, Wis., March 4.—The supreme court has upheld the award under the workmen's compensation act to Mrs. Amalia Torney, widow of a school principal who died from the effects of injuries caused by a basketball ball which struck him while he was playing with his pupils.

This work was authorized by the school board and, it was contended, was part of Torney's duties. The accident occurred in May, 1912. The widow was awarded the full compensation of $3,000.

Washington, March 4.—Representative Frederick C. Stevens of Minnesota was presented with a pair of gold cuff buttons by members of the house committee on interstate and foreign commerce as a token of their esteem. Mr. Stevens retires from congress after twelve years' continuous service on this committee.

The presentation address was made by Representative Charles Adamson, chairman. James R. Mann, minority leader, also eulogized Mr. Stevens for long and faithful service. Mr. Stevens has been in congress eighteen years.

SUSPECTS ALLEGE CASE IS FRAMEUP

New York Bomb Throwers Accuse Detective.

New York, March 4.—"Framed up" by their supposed comrade, Detective Poligani, the brains of the St. Patrick's cathedral bomb conspiracy.

This was the way Frank Abarbo and Charles Carbone stated their side of the case after they had been arraigned and remanded to jail, charged with having plotted to explode two bombs in St. Patrick's.

The indictments charge the two with having placed a bomb in a public place in violation of the penal law. They will plead Friday. The maximum penalty is twenty-five years in prison.

Detective Poligani was known to the alleged dynamiters as Frank Baldo. The latter, they asserted, originated and planned the details of the conspiracy.

NO CANAL TRIP FOR WILSON

Congress Eliminates Appropriation for Celebration.

Washington, March 4.—President Wilson practically decided to abandon his contemplated trip to the Panama canal in July because of the action of congress in eliminating from the legislative and executive bill the appropriation for the celebration of the formal opening of the canal.

He still is undecided about the trip to San Francisco this month.

KILLED ON WAY TO WAR

Rancher, Stowaway in Ship's Bunker, Crushed by Impouring Coal.

Glendive, Mont., March 4.—Determined to join the German army, his family believe, Charles L. Hauser, a rancher, left Glendive three weeks ago, stowed himself in a coal bunker of a vessel in the East that was about to sail for Europe and was crushed to death when fuel was poured into the ship's hold.

Hauser recently remarked that the Germans appeared to be hard pressed and that it was time for him to go back to fight for the Fatherland.

FAIL TO PIERCE RUSSIAN LINES

Czar's Forces Check Austro-German Armies.

TEUTONS CONTINUE ATTACKS

Object Appears to Be Relief of Przemyssl and to Drive Russians Out of Galicia—Petrograd Official Reports Say the Austrians Have Suffered Heavy Losses.

London, March 4.—In their determination to relieve Przemyssl and drive the Russians out of Galicia the Austro-German armies, which for some drive the Russians out of Galicia the of the Carpathian mountains, during the last few days have made repeated attempts to break through the Russian entrenchments, but without success.

Since Sunday last, when in massed formation they threw themselves against Russian troops holding strong positions, the Austro-Germans have attacked again and again in spite of the heavy losses which this kind of fighting entails.

Regarding the Austrians' attempt to outflank the Russians in Eastern Galicia two Russian official reports in succession have declared that the Austrians suffered a severe reverse and that Tuesday they lost in prisoners alone more than 6,000 men. The Russians also captured a number of guns and a large quantity of transport material.

Germans Silence Forts.

On the other extreme wing in North Poland the Germans either have assumed the defensive or are retiring, except at Ossowetz, where they continue to bombard the fortress. Berlin reports unofficially that at this point the Germans have succeeded in silencing two of the forts. Their attempt to approach the city, however, has been repulsed by the Russians.

The Germans, while claiming success near Augustowo, where they captured 1,500 prisoners from among the Russian forces who tried to cross the Bohrer river, admit that they have withdrawn their advance guards south of Mysyniec and that the Russians have been feeling their way forward to the northwest of Przasnysz.

So far as the west is concerned the French offensive in the Champagne region continues to be the outstanding feature of the campaign. The French troops now have reached the highest points on the ground north of Perthes and Beauséjour and must be drawing near positions from which they will be able to shell the branch railway that runs to the rear of the German line and maintains communication between the German forces before Rheims and Verdun.

ONE PLEASES OFFICIALS

Text of German Note Arrives at State Department.

Washington, March 4.—The official text of Germany's reply to the suggestions of the United States government with reference to the abandonment of submarine warfare on merchant ships and the shipment of foodstuffs to the civilian population of belligerents was received by the state department.

The German communication is an acquiescence on practically all the points proposed by the United States. Administration officials are pleased both with its tone and its promise of a cessation of submarine warfare on unarmed merchant ships if shipments of food to German civilians are not stopped.

All eyes now are turned on London, where the reply of the allies to the same communication from the United States will be formulated.

LINER FLIES UNION JACK

Captain of Baltic Will Keep British Flag Up.

New York, March 4.—The White Star liner Baltic, carrying 18,000 tons of war supplies, steamed from this port for Liverpool. Its commander, Captain J. B. Ranson, said that as far as he is concerned he "will fly the British flag from America to hell," notwithstanding German submarines. It was said that the Baltic carried in her holds merchandise and foodstuffs sufficient to fill 1,500 freight cars. On her decks were lashed forty semi-armored automobile trucks consigned to the British government for use. It was said, by English troops in France.

"BOY PLUNGER"
NOW BANKRUPT

Jesse Livermore Loses Fortune Made by Speculation.

OWES MORE THAN $100,000

Bought Mansion, Yacht and String of
Automobiles After Stock Market
Panic of 1907—Reported to Have Lost
$3,000,000 When He Tried to Corner
Cotton in 1908.

Jesse L. Livermore, the "boy plun-ger," who "ran a shoestring into a
fortune" by Wall street manipulation,
has filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy. He gives his liabilities as $102,474 and places no value on his
assets, which are meager.

Mr. Livermore once described himself as a "bucket shop graduate." Born in Massachusetts in 1877, he went to work in a Boston broker's office at the age of sixteen, making quotations on a bulletin board and receiving $6 a week.

With $30 saved out of his salary
Livermore embarked on the stormy sea of speculation. He took his first plunge in one of the "bucket shops"
in the Hub—and came out on top. Flushed with this success and with confidence in his luck, he abandoned
his job and started trading for himself. Before he was twenty-one years old he had made a comfortable fortune.

In 1906 he went to New York, having tried Boston, Denver and Chicago
and yearning for bigger game. When he started in New York his stake was $25,000. Before long this had been stretched into $250,000.

When the panic of 1907 came he
had realized that overspeculation and overextension would be followed by disastrous liquidation and put out a
short line of Union Pacific, Reading,
Copper and Smelters. When the crash
came he was able to cover every contract and start on a trip to Europe.
He bought a mansion, a yacht and a
string of automobiles, and Wall street
spoke of him as a "wise young man."

Big Gambles in Cotton.

Then he became interested in cotton. On his return from Europe, after
the situation here had cleared up, he found the cotton market oversold and everybody short. He sprang his big cotton coup and came out between $2-000,000 and $5,000,000 ahead. Wall street was now convinced that he was
a "wise young man."

In 1908 he tried to corner cotton and
was reported to have lost about $3,000-000. After that he was not heard from again until 1913, when suit was
brought against him by the liquidating
partners of the Stock Exchange firm
of Mitchell & Co. Then he dropped out of view until the petition was filed. Most of the claims, the petition
states, are for money due on promissory notes given for transactions in the open market in 1913 and 1914.

At the time of his failure, in 1913,
Livermore announced that he had invested $400,000 in an annuity which brought him an income of $20,000 and could not be touched. No mention of
this is made in the bankruptcy petition. He lives with his wife at Bret-ton Hall, Broadway and Eighty-sixth street, New York.

In the petition filed the principal
claims are: Mitchell & Co., $27,463;
Murray Mitchell, $16,000; Chapman &
Seaman, $7,207; H. F. Bachman & Co.,
$9,740; Wagner, Dickerson & Co., $6-
982, and Duryea, Tappin & Co., $6,355.
The assets include 5,000 shares of West Tonopah Consolidated Mining
company, fifteen shares preferred and
seven common of Long Island Motor Parkway stock, one share of stock of the Dunwoody country club, and a claim against C. A. Little for $6,426.

Pointers on how to get rid of the ubiquitous rat, from sewing a red jacket on him to dipping him in tar, are contained in a bulletin just issued by the Massachusetts state board of agriculture and compiled by Edward H.
Forbush, state ornithologist. The following advice as to how to conduct an exterminating warfare is contained in
the bulletin:

"Use cats, terriers, particularly the
fox terrier, and ferrets; sew a red
jacket on a captive rat or paint him;
then release him; place a collar and a
bell on a live rat and release him; dip
him in tar and liberate him; also place
tar in rat holes, runs and burrows;
sprinkle chloride of lime around rat
habitats or use carbolic acid."

A Rothschild Arsenal.

The Austrian Rothschilds are the only members of the family to man-

the Wittkowitz iron works in Moravia, Baron Louis de Rothschild, the head of the Austrian branch, furnishes the works, the technical organization of which is perfect in every detail, have connected with the Rothschilds. They

"BOY PLUNGER"
NOW BANKRUPT

Jesse Livermore Loses Fortune Made by Speculation.

OWES MORE THAN $100,000

Bought Mansion, Yacht and String of
Automobiles After Stock Market
Panic of 1907—Reported to Have Lost
$3,000,000 When He Tried to Corner
Cotton in 1908.

Jesse L. Livermore, the "boy plun-
ger," who "ran a shoestring into a
fortune" by Wall street manipulation,
has filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy. He gives his liabilities as $102,474 and places no value on his
assets, which are meager.

Mr. Livermore once described himself as a "bucket shop graduate." Born in Massachusetts in 1877, he went to work in a Boston broker's office at the age of sixteen, marking quotations on a bulletin board and receiving $6 a week.

With $30 saved out of his salary
Livermore embarked on the stormy
sea of speculation. He took his first
plunge in one of the "bucket shops"
in the Hub—and came out on top. Flushed with this success and with confidence in his luck, he abandoned
his job and started trading for himself. Before he was twenty-one years
old he had made a comfortable fortune.

In 1906 he went to New York, having tried Boston, Denver and Chicago
and yearning for bigger game. When
he started in New York his stake was $25,000. Before long this had been
stretched into $250,000.

When the panic of 1907 came he
had realized that overspeculation and overextension would be followed by
disastrous liquidation and put out a
short line of Union Pacific, Reading,
Copper and Smelters. When the crash
came he was able to cover every contract and start on a trip to Europe.
He bought a mansion, a yacht and a
string of automobiles, and Wall street
spoke of him as a "wise young man."

Big Gambles in Cotton.

Then he became interested in cotton. On his return from Europe, after
the situation here had cleared up, he
found the cotton market oversold and
everybody short. He sprang his big
cotton coup and came out between $2-000,000 and $3,000,000 ahead. Wall
street was now convinced that he was
a "wise young man."

In 1908 he tried to corner cotton and
was reported to have lost about $3,000-000. After that he was not heard from again until 1913, when suit was
brought against him by the liquidating
partners of the Stock Exchange firm
of Mitchell & Co. Then he dropped
out of view until the petition was filed. Most of the claims, the petition
states, are for money due on promissory notes given for transactions in the open market in 1913 and 1914.

At the time of his failure, in 1913,
Livermore announced that he had in-
vested $400,000 in an annuity which
brought him an income of $20,000 and
could not be touched. No mention of
this is made in the bankruptcy petition. He lives with his wife at Bret-
ton Hall, Broadway and Eighty-sixth
street, New York.

In the petition filed the principal
claimants are: Mitchell & Co., $27,463;
Murray Mitchell, $16,000; Chapman &
Seaman, $7,207; H. F. Bachman & Co.,
$9,740; Wagner, Dickerson & Co., $6-
982; and Duryen, Tappin & Co., $6,355.
The assets include 5,000 shares of
W. J. Tonopah Consolidated Mining
company, fifteen shares preferred and
seven common of Long Island Motor Parkway stock, one share of stock of
the Dunwoody country club, and a claim against C. A. Litiare for $6,426.

Pointers on how to get rid of the

contained in a bulletin just issued by

culture and compiled by Edward H.
Forbush, state ornithologist. The following advice as to how to conduct an
exterminating warfare is contained in
the bulletin:
"Use cats, terriers, particularly the
fox terrier, and ferrets; sew a red
jacket on a captive rat or paint him;
then release him; place a collar and a
bell on a live rat and release him; dip
him in tar and liberate him; also place
tar in rat holes, runs and burrows;
sprinkle chloride of lime around rat
habitats or use carbolic acid."

WOMAN'S REALM

AT SWEDISH BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. W. J. Lowrie Spoke on "A Call to Repentance," Meeting

Reviewed

Those who attended the evangelistic meeting in the Swedish Baptist church last evening were given a musical treat that was aside from the regular program. The Apollo quartet gave two beautiful and appropriate selections. The quartet is composed of Gussie Smith and William Anderson, tenors; Dr. Long and George Berggren, bass. Miss Anna Michaelson sang an invitation hymn in her usual splendid voice.

The platform was occupied by the various clergy of the city, and the Salvation Army workers, and the choir led by the singers from the different churches. The church was again filled.

Prayer was made by Lieutenant Motland and Walter J. Smith. The Scripture was read by Captain Sangren. Rev. R. E. Cody called attention to the advertisement that is appearing in the Daily Dispatch each evening giving some economic facts concerning the liquor traffic and the saloons of Brainerd. Look up that "ad" every night, said he.

Rev. Lowrie spoke on the subject, "A Call to Repentance." The text was from Luke 13:3 "Except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish." At the invitation that was given at the close of the sermon five men and one woman responded and came to the front in public confession of Christ.

The preacher said in substance: "Christ taught that men in place of philosophizing about abstract things and constructing uncertain theories about the relation of sin to calamity were to repent. Repentance is a fundamental thing while speculation is only an intellectual diversion that has no outcome.

"Repentance is a change of mind in relation to sin, self and God. Sin is more than a blunder—it is hell and devilry that will bind its victim in the chains of torment forever and ever. Its wages is death.

"Repentance will bring a man from sin to salvation, from death to life, from the Devil to Christ.

"The teaching of the word of God is that a man without Christ, that is the one who is not living the Christian life, is dead. Not physically dead but spiritually dead and in this state of living death there is no righteousness in him. He is dead to heaven, dead to hope, dead to God.

"This deadness is translated into modern fiction by such writers as Stevenson, in his story 'Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde'; E. A. Poe in his story of 'William Wilson,' and Hawthorne's character 'Roderick Ellison.'

"In view of this fact of the evil that always triumphs if left alone Christ calls saying, 'Except ye repent ye shall perish.' The time for repentance is today, not tomorrow. Those men who in Bible days said 'Tomorrow' found that there was no tomorrow for them. The only day we have is 'today.'

"Nothing will take the place of repentance. Working for the church, the lodge, working for temperance, working for any good, moral, uplift movement; being a member of the ladies' aid or missionary society will not take the place of repentance. Jesus did not say 'Join the church or Ladies' Aid and ye shall be saved.' He said, 'Except ye repent ye shall all perish.'

"It is a good thing to buy a patch for a blind man's eye but it is not like giving sight to that eye. Sight was only come to any man by presenting Christ to him in such a way that he will be constrained to confess and believe.

"There is only one way out of the Mammoth Cave in Kentucky so there is only one way out of the old life and that is by the way of repentance.

"Joy follows repentance as the sunshine follows the shower. There is joy in the heart of the child when his wretched father repents and turns from a life of drunkenness to a life of faith. There is joy in any soul when he turns from a life of doubt and negation to faith and positiveness. It is like getting out of the sand hills onto the level road, out of the mist into the light."

This evening the men's gospel team of the Baptist church will have charge of the service. The subject will be "Amusements." There will be special music.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

At the Grand

"The Old Mill Stream," tonight. "Rather let a thousand guilty men go free than hang one innocent man," is a golden rule but infrequently followed when vindictiveness is permitted to creep into a jury's judgments. Frequently when a case is tried in the locality of the crime the law fails of its object, for the reason that local prejudice only too often preconditions the one to whom circumstantial evidence points.

Also "Ambition," The love of a faithful husband, home ties, parents, religion, even honor itself, go by the board in the attempt to grasp the bauble of fame.

Friday and Saturday, "Beautiful Unknown." Every night five and six reels. Two selected features.

Empress Theatre

"The Dancer and the King" was highly appreciated by the audiences at the Empress theatre last night. This photoplay is another splendid feature, and elicited much appreciation.

The program for today is comprised of two splendid dramas and two comedies. "The Chinatown Mystery" is a two part drama; "Putting It Over," is a comedy; "On the Table Top," a drama, and "The Amateur Photographer" a comedy. The bill for tomorrow is the third episode of "Runaway June," and three other good reels.

At the Columbia

Tonight and tomorrow may be seen two three-reel dramas. The first is "Little Sunbeam," with Jack Saunders in the title role.

The story is laid in southern California and the producers have taken full advantage of the natural scenic beauty in arranging the out-of-door settings. A cast of unusual brilliancy gives admirable support to Miss Saunders and make this film one of the leading features of the year.

The other is "Bitter Sweets" telling an absorbing story of a country girl alone in the city, a gentlemanly crook, and a studious, honorable young college man forming a fascinating triangle about which a photodrama of absorbing interest has been constructed.

Patrons of the silent drama must not forget Sunday and St. Em. This is not a Biblical story but a great intense love story.

Will Solve Problems

Ethel May, the mystery girl who will appear at every performance of the Allen Stock Co. at the Brainerd opera house commencing Monday March 8th, devotes only a little of her time to her work in the theatre, Her mail is something enormous and while she opens and answers every letter herself she keeps an expert stenographer employed. In a city where she recently played she received and answered 1,500 letters during the engagement and an accurate record kept for a period of six months showed that she had answered over 38,000 questions during that time, over three quarters of which were correct. A classification of which showed that the questions in reference to marriage predominated over all others, while the others related to money, wealth, health, changes of business and sweethearts, in about that order.

Ladies free Monday night with one 30c paid ticket, if purchased before 6 p. m. Monday. Ticket sale now on at H. P. Dunn's drug store.

Pickled Tea as Relish.

Pickled tea, "letpetso," is a rare delicacy in Burma and Siam. The leaves are thrown into boiling water and there remain until they become soft, when they are rolled by hand on mats and allowed to cool. They are then rammed down tight into the internode of a bamboo, a stopper is made of guava leaves, and the bamboo is suspended two days, with stopper down, to drain off the water, and then buried in the ground till the letpet has matured, when it is ready for sale and use. If not buried the letpet becomes black and spoiled instead of yellowish, as it should be. The letpet is rarely made into a drink, but is eaten, generally with oil and garlic.

WOMAN'S REALM

AT SWEDISH BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. W. J. Lowrie Spoke on "A Call to Repentance." Meeting Reviewed

Those who attended the evangelistic meeting in the Swedish Baptist church last evening were given a musical treat that was aside from the regular program. The Apollo quartet gave two beautiful and appropriate selections. The quartet is composed of Gussie Small and William Andersen, tenors; Dr. Long and George Berggren, bass. Miss Anna Michaelson sang an invitation hymn in her usual spicard voice.

The platform was occupied by the various clergy of the city, and the Salvation Army workers, and the choir led by the singers from the different churches. The church was again filled.

Prayer was made by Lieutenant Motland and Walter J. Smith. The Scripture was read by Captain Sangren. Rev. R. E. Cody called attention to the advertisement that is appearing in the Daily Dispatch each evening giving some economic facts concerning the liquor traffic and the saloons of Brainerd. Look up that "ad" every night, said he.

Rev. Lowrie spoke on the subject, "A Call to Repentance." The text was from Luke 13:3 "Except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish." At the invitation that was given at the close of the sermon five men and one woman responded and came to the front in public confession of Christ.

The preacher said in substance: "Christ taught that men in place of philosophizing about abstract things and constructing uncertain theories about the relation of sin to calamity were to repent. Repentance is a fundamental thing while speculation is only an intellectual diversion that has no outcome.

"Repentance is a change of mind in relation to sin, self and God. Sin is more than a blunder—it is hell and devilry that will bind its victim in the chains of torment forever and ever. Its wages is death.

"Repentance will bring a man from sin to salvation, from death to life, from the Devil to Christ.

"The teaching of the word of God is that a man without Christ, that is the one who is not living the Christian life, is dead. Not physically dead but spiritually dead and in this state of living death there is no righteousness in him. He is dead to heaven, dead to hope, dead to God.

"This deadness is translated into modern fiction by such writers as Stevenson, in his story 'Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde'; E. A. Poe in his story of 'William Wilson'; and Hawthorne's character 'Roderick Ellison.'

"In view of this fact of the evil that always triumphs if left alone Christ calls saying, 'Except ye repent ye shall perish.' The time for repentance is today, not tomorrow. Those men who in Bible days said 'Tomorrow' found that there was no tomorrow for them. The only day we have is 'today.'

"Nothing will take the place of repentance. Working for the church, the lodge, working for temperance, working for any good, moral, uplift movement; being a member of the ladies' aid or missionary society will not take the place of repentance. Jesus did not say 'Join the church or Ladies' Aid and ye shall be saved.' He said, 'Except ye repent ye shall all perish.'

"It is a good thing to buy a patch for a blind man's eye but it is not like giving sight to that eye. Sight will only come to any man by presenting Christ to him in such a way that he will be constrained to confess and believe.

"There is only one way out of the Mammoth Cave in Kentucky so there is only one way out of the old life and that is by the way of repentance.

"Joy follows repentance as the sunshine follows the shower. There is joy in the heart of the child when his wretched father repents and turns from a life of drunkenness to a life of faith. There is joy in any soul when he turns from a life of doubt and negation to faith and positiveness. It is like getting out of the sand hills onto the level road, out of the mist into the light."

This evening the men's gospel team of the Baptist church will have charge of the service. The subject will be "Amusements." There will be special music.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

At the Grand

"The Old Mill Stream," tonight. "Rather let a thousand guilty men go free than hang one innocent man," is a golden rule but infrequently followed when vindictiveness is permitted to creep into a jury's judgments. Frequently when a case is tried in the locality of the crime the law fails of its object, for the reason that local prejudice only too often preconditions the one to whom circumstantial evidence points.

Also "Ambition." The love of a faithful husband, home ties, parents, religion, even honor itself, go by the board in the attempt to grasp the bauble of fame.

Friday and Saturday, "Beautiful Unknown." Every night five and six reels. Two selected features.

Empress Theatre

"The Dancer and the King" was highly appreciated by the audiences at the Empress theatre last night. This photoplay is another splendid feature, and elicited much appreciation.

The program for today is comprised of two splendid dramas and two comedies. "The Chinatown Mystery" is a two part drama; "Putting It Over," is a comedy; "On The Table Top," a drama, and "The Amateur Photographer" a comedy. The bill for tomorrow is the third episode of "Runa way June," and three other good reels.

At the Columbia

Tonight and tomorrow may be seen two three-reel dramas. The first is "Little Sunbeam," with Jack Saunders in the title role.

The story is laid in southern California and the producers have taken full advantage of the natural scenic beauty in arranging the out-of-door settings. A cast of unusual brilliancy gives admirable support to Miss Saunders and make this film one of the leading features of the year.

The other is "Bitter Sweets" telling an absorbing story of a country girl alone in the city, a gentlemanly crook, and a studious, honorable young college man forming a fascinating triangle about which a photodrama of absorbing interest has been constructed.

Patrons of the silent drama must not forget Sunday and St. Em. This is not a Biblical story but a great intense love story.

Ethel May, the mystery girl who will appear at every performance of the Allen Stock Co. at the Brainerd opera house commencing Monday, March 8th, devotes only a little of her time to her work in the theatre. Her mail is something enormous and while she opens and answers every letter herself she keeps an expert stenographer employed. In a city where she recently played she received and answered 1,500 letters during the engagement and an accurate record kept for a period of six months showed that she had answered over 38,000 questions during that time, over three quarters of which were correct. A classification of which showed that the questions in reference to marriage predominated over all others, while the others related to money, wealth, health, changes of business and sweethearts, in about that order.

Secrets of Beautiful Hair

The first secret is a clean, healthy scalp. But don't wash it with soap. The strong, free alkali in many soaps parches the scalp and makes the hair dull, lusterless and brittle. Mason's Magic Shampoo cleanses the scalp thoroughly and frees it from dandruff and excessive oil. The tonic action of its vegetable oils and antiseptics stimulates the underlying plant and promotes growth of the hair, giving it softness and a beautiful, silky lustre. Hairdries quickly and evenly and is easy to do up. Use Mason's Magic Shampoo for 30 days and you'll marvel at your beautiful hair. 25c-50c per package.

This is a remarkable genuine hair tonic, different from and vastly superior to all others. It positively contains no alcohol. Alcohol too quickly absorbs the natural oil of the hair and scalp, making it excessively dry and thereby creates dandruff and brittle hair. Mason's Magic Hair Tonic keeps the scalp in a healthy condition free from dandruff and by its stimulating action of the hair follicles, aids the growth of the hair. It almost immediately stops the hair from falling out and speedily creates a new and abundant growth. Money refunded if it fails. 50c per bottle.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE DEBATE IS ON

(By United Press)

St. Paul, March 4.—The discussion of woman's suffrage was begun by Senator Andrews, of Mankato, at 11:05 this morning. Yellow jonquills the badge of the suffragettes, were on every desk, while many were also decorated with red roses, the flower of the opposition.

Senator Westlake, of Minneapolis, says he will introduce an amendment to the county option law, excepting Hennepin, Ramsey and St. Louis counties from its workings, after the suffrage debate is over.

For the People

(By United Press)

St. Paul, March 4.—Senator Jones, of Duluth, made a strong appeal for woman suffrage during the debate in the senate this morning, promising to vote for it or any other measure giving the people the right to vote for what they want. "There are women who do not want to vote," said the Duluth senator, "bless their dear hearts, they don't have to." He said the legislature had repeatedly submitted amendments to the people from 300 members of the state bar association asking for some extra judges, yet they were unable to see 35,000 people asking for the right to vote. He would even agree to submit to the people a proposition taxing dogs.

Indian Bill Accepted

Washington, March 4.—Despite of Senator Gronna's objections the conference report finally accepted the Indian bill.

FATAL FIGHT WITH BANDITS

Two Killed in Clash With Mexican Customs Guards.

San Antonio, Tex., March 4.—In a running fight between eighteen Mexican bandits and twelve Mexican customs guards Monday night forty miles south of Nuevo Laredo, Mex., one bandit and one guard were killed and the leader of the bandits seriously wounded and captured.

Posses are still in pursuit of the surviving members of the gang, which is said to have been looting ranch houses and holding their owners for ransom.

FALLING HAIR MEANS DANDRUFF IS ACTIVE

Save your hair! Get a 25 cent bottle of Danderine right now—Also stops itching scalp.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and after the first application your hair will take on that life, lustre and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance; an incomparable gloss and softness, but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks' use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp.—Adv't.

HYPNOTIZING ANIMALS.

Even the Deadly Cobra May Be Made Perfectly Passive.

Hypnotizing a hen is a trick known to most country boys. It is an old experiment, first described by the Jesuit father, Athanasius Kircher, who laid a hen on the table, held it firmly by a little while and drew a chalk line in front of its eyes, with the result that it remained as if in a catalepsy. In India it is known that a cobra caught by the neck and gently pressed will soon become stiff and remain so for a considerable time either coiled up or out straight.

A frog fastened to a board and turned suddenly upside down goes into a trance. Other animals are susceptible to this treatment, some more quickly than others.

If you pick up a crab and wave it in the air it becomes immobile, a female bending her legs over her abdomen, a male sticking them out almost straight. The same is true of the fresh water crayfish, only this resists for a much longer time than a crab.

Among the insects catalepsy—commonly known as "death feigning"—is common, and, according to Professor Ernst Mangold, the learned German naturalist, is often a means of saving the life of the insect.

According to Mangold, the hypnotic condition is induced in man by suggestion or physical inhibition, in animals by mechanical inhibition, but in both cases sensory stimuli may assist. These stimuli may be optic (fixing the gaze on some object), or tactile (stroking the skin), or otherwise. Sometimes an absence of wanted stimuli may induce the state, as in the case of absolute silence.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Undiscovered Oceans of Truth.

"We may be justly proud of what has been achieved, but let us not fail to remember with Newton that 'the vast ocean of truth' still lies for the most part undiscovered before us." However marked may be the progress of science, her individual votaries must always feel a sense of humility at the little the best of them is able to contribute toward the general result.—Sir Edward Schaefer, in an address to the British association.

DAYTON CHARGES DROPPED

Washington, March 4.—The House judiciary committee voted, 11 to 4, to drop the impeachment proceedings against Federal Judge Dayton of West Virginia, although the majority report held that the judge's conduct in some instances had been "reprehensible."

Story of a Seeress.

Grant Duff in his diary tells a curious story of a "seeress." Mlle. Lenormand was consulted by Robespierre and Napoleon I. Grant Duff's father had a strange experience with Mlle. Lenormand. He and a friend went to consult her, and after she had told him what he wanted to know she tried with the friend, but became confused, said her heart failed her and begged him to leave the house. He persuaded her to try again, and again the same result followed. Then, declaring that this had never happened to her before, she lost all patience and implored him to leave instantly. He did so and as he passed out of her door was knocked down and killed by a heavy wagon.

Forks.

Neither the Greeks nor the Romans possessed forks. It was, according to that curious book of travels, "Coryat's Crudities," published in 1611, left to Italy to invent them, because, as the author quaintly observes, "the Italian cannot by any means endure to have his dish touched with hands, seeing that all men's fingers are not alike clean."

A Serious Conclusion.

"Is your daughter still taking music lessons?" "No," replied Mr. Growler. "After hearing her sing and play lately I have concluded that she doesn't need a teacher any more. What she wants is a censor."—Washington Star.

Aye, There's the Rub!

"Does she doubt your love, court?" "Parbleu! Worse; she doubts my title."—Exchange.

ROOT ASKS MORE PAY FOR CLERKS

Congress Doesn't Take Kindly to Suggestion.

HOUSE EMPLOYEES FAVORED

Members Have Seen to It That Their Own Help Is Amply Provided For, and, While Liberality Is Displayed Along Other Lines, Still General Payroll Is Kept Down.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, March 4.—[Special.]—Senator Root made an effort to secure an increase for the government employees and in the course of the discussion pointed out that congress paid its own clerks and other employees 50 per cent more than the other federal clerks received. Of course it has become well known that congress has not only grown extravagant in the number of clerks employed, but it has also been extremely liberal in providing compensation for them. That is natural in view of the fact that congress added 50 per cent to the pay of senators and representatives several years ago. Congress costs just double what it cost twenty years ago; but, although congress is liberal with itself and immediate employees, it did not take kindly to the suggestion of Senator Root for an increase of pay for the other government employees. It is only the large number of rural carriers who secure increases.

Guard Their Work Hours.

While congress may not be so very liberal in the matter of pay for government employees, it is quite careful to guard their work hours and to prevent the introduction of systems of efficiency and timekeeping which meet with the objections of workmen. This is particularly the case where attempts have been made to introduce the Taylor and similar systems into departments where labor is generally employed, such as in the navy yards, arsenals and other places. The fight against these efficiency systems always finds support in congress. There may be votes in sight, as they are generally to be found in labor legislation.

George Comes Once a Year.

Once a year congress brings out George Washington, parades him about the halls and corridors for a time, and then sends him back. The precepts of the Father of His Country are read and commented upon, but that is all. Senators and members remark with unctious wisdom of the farewell address and then ignore it. "No tangling alliances," said Washington, yet dozens of treaties are ratified which entangle us with foreign countries and still more are proposed. "In time of peace prepare for war," said Washington, but the consensus of opinion is that very little has been done in that direction. But in another year we will have it all over again.

Was Not in Politics.

Now, in comparing Washington to Jefferson and Lincoln we find such a difference! These wise men are on duty all the time. They were in politics, both of them, that is the reason. They founded political dynasties, and George Washington only founded a great nation. And we are in politics. That makes the difference.

Conceal Their Grief.

It is observed that the Democrats have been able to conceal their grief over the defeat of the shipping bill. They have not made the bitterness of defeat divide them from their Republican friends, nor have they ostracized the seven Democrats who aided in defeating that measure. Way down deep it is known that some Democrats who supported the shipping bill did not want it.

Fanciful Highways.

There was a brief road discussion in the senate, and inquiry was made as to the expenditure of sums for roads in an experimental way. "The most of that money," said Senator Bristow of Kansas, "has been spent for fanciful highways in different parts of the country and not on roads which will be used to any extent by rural carriers." He asserted that in some states the expenditure had been for roads between cities without reference to the rural mail service.

The strained relations between congress and the federal departments are growing. Once during the consideration of some measure Minority Leader Mann asked:

"Do the departments pay no attention at all to the laws that we pass fixing a limit of cost?"

"They thought it was an impertinence for congress to make any suggestion," replied Chairman Fitzgerald. And when his remark created a laugh he added: "That is no joke. It is a fact."

The All Night Grind.

The all night grind is very hard on some of the older senators. Men along about seventy do not want to remain up all night. It is impossible to close a short session of congress without these all night sittings. The men who used to stand such work well were Allison of Iowa and Hale of Maine. They did not seem to mind working day and night on the appropriation bills. There are a number of senators who seem to stand the work now, but the large majority want to avoid it.

ROCKEFELLER OFFERS AID

Willing to Relieve Distress Among Colorado Miners.

New York, March 4.—Assistance by the Rockefeller Foundation may be given to Colorado miners and their families who are in distress as a result of recent mining troubles in that state if civic authorities are unable to cope with the need. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., indicated this in a telegram sent to President F. J. Radford of the Chamber of Commerce of Trinidad, Colo.

Mr. Rockefeller's telegram was sent in response to one received from Mr. Radford appealing to him for aid.

Mr. Rockefeller in his telegram said the officers of the Colorado Fuel and Iron company hope that the company itself will be able to provide such relief as is necessary among its own employees.

ENGLISH BUYERS RECALLED

Have Been Securing Live Stock and Supplies in Western States.

Chicago, March 4.—Four English military officers who have been purchasing live stock and food supplies for British armies have been recalled from their stations in Montana, Wyoming and California.

They say they believe the cause of their recall is the assurance the allies now have of securing plenty of food supplies from Russia through the Dardanelles.

Chicago, March 4.—Control of 91 per cent of the railway employees of the country is vested in 170 financial magnates of the "inner circle," according to evidence presented to the board of arbitration in the Western railroads wage controversy.

The evidence, gathered by congressional committees, was presented by W. J. Lauck.

Hinton, W. Va., March 4.—Rescue parties continue their efforts to penetrate the workings of the Layland mine of the New River and Pocahontas Consolidated Coal company, where an explosion occurred.

Four additional bodies were brought to the surface. This increases the total dead to fourteen.

LAYS TWO MURDERS TO PAL

Dry City Makes Better Business

So Says Aitkin Merchant Who Makes Interesting Comparisons

Three years ago there were nine saloons running full blast on the streets of Aitkin, and at this time the village of Aitkin had piled up an indebtedness of about $45,000, notwithstanding the fact that it had been laboring under a load of saloons for thirty years and had been receiving license all the time.

Drunkenness was rampant. To keep store meant having drunken men in your store every day. The malignant red light was kept burning at a low resort just outside the village.

Then Aitkin went dry but elected a wet council that would not enforce the laws, and we had at least four blind pigs running on our streets, although our county attorney was doing splendid work in securing evidence and indictments to close these places. In March, 1911, Aitkin went wet again and we had three saloons. In March, 1912, Aitkin went dry. Today, if we see a drunk on the streets we turn clear around to look at him and wonder where he got the booze. Occasionally we see an empty bottle on the streets. Some say liquor is still being sold. Perhaps it is, but the writer has been and still is offering $50 for a bottle of whiskey bought in this town, with the required evidence, and we do not get a single bottle.

Careful inquiry reveals the fact that a small quantity of liquor is being shipped in by private parties. One of our depots has not shipped in a barrel of liquor in six months. Our other depot has received only a small quantity of liquor—little more than would be required for the drug trade in a town of this size.

How do these conditions affect trade? We have an accurate record of the daily sales of our store, The Aitkin Cash Store, for years back. These records are open for the inspection of anyone who may doubt these figures. They show that the first year that the town went dry, (the year we had blind pigs) our daily sales averaged $17.73 more than for the previous year. The next year, 1911, the wet year, our sales averaged daily $8.99 less than the previous dry year, and for the present year commencing March, 1912, when Aitkin again went dry, our daily sales averaged $21.75 more than they did the previous wet year.

What does this mean? There are eighteen stores in Aitkin, besides restaurants and millineries. If each store has received the same ratio of increase in trade that we have, and we have positive evidence that some of them have, it means that from $400 to $500 daily, or taking the lowest figure, $400, it means that $112,000 have been saved to legitimate channels of trade in Aitkin in the past dry year. This money has gone into the comforts of life, into home and farm improvements, into taxable property, if you please, that will bring in a regular legitimate income to county, state and village treasuries. It means that this vast sum of money, $112,000, has not been put in a pile and burnt, or worse than that, poured down men's necks to make more trouble, crime and expense, but that it has been saved. It means that the red light has gone out long ago, and that if anything that wears pants, but lacks much that is required in the making of a man, inquires for a red light, we can refer him to the twinkling switch lights on the Soo and N. P. * * *

Yes, taxes are high. We are paying off the great debt that was piled up when the town was wet. Our village council expects to pay off about $11,000 of the village debt this year, or in other words, to wipe out the floating debt of $9,000 and pay the first installment of $3,000 on our bonded indebtedness, with the taxes raised this year. Next year we will be by the bad place and taxes will very likely be very much lower.

Yours, for prosperity, happiness and a dry town,

J. M. TUCKER.

NATION'S NAVAL STRENGTH WILL PASS IN REVIEW.

Greatest Gathering of American Warships Planned For Next June.

Secretary Daniels has taken steps to arrange for a grand review of the Atlantic fleet at New York in June. He wrote to Rear Admiral Frank F. Fletcher, commander in chief of the fleet, suggesting that the review take place and that Admiral Fletcher advise him as to whether it would be feasible to carry out the program proposed by Mr. Daniels. The idea is strongly advocated in administration circles, and it seems to be a foregone conclusion that the review, which will be the most remarkable gathering of warships ever seen in American waters, will take place. More than 120 warships, including super-Dreadnoughts, will be in line.

Congress already has provided for a review at Hampton Roads, Virginia, in celebration of the opening of the Panama canal, and the review at New York, according to the plan suggested by Secretary Daniels, will be held in connection with these ceremonies. The plan provides that after the function at Hampton Roads the fleet shall proceed to the Panama canal, where it will be reviewed by President Wilson, who intends to visit the canal in July to participate in the celebration to mark the formal opening of the great waterway.

Secretary Daniels said that he would give consideration to a proposal that joint army and navy war games be held at New York for the purpose of determining whether the defenses of that city were adequate. It would be impossible, however, he said, to have these games at the time of the proposed review in June, but it might be feasible to undertake them after the return of the fleet from the canal.

Secretary Garrison also expressed himself as inclined to favor a joint war game in the vicinity of New York, but he pointed out that the considerable amount of money that would be necessary was not available, and he saw no prospect of getting an appropriation at this session of congress, which will end on March 4.

The Atlantic fleet is now in Cuban waters, with headquarters at Guantanamo. According to the tentative plan outlined to Admiral Fletcher by Secretary Daniels, the fleet would leave Guantanamo in May for Narragansett bay and after arrival there would engage in practice maneuvers and possibly in target practice. Early in June the fleet would proceed to New York for the review and in the same month would go to Hampton Roads for the celebration of the opening of the Panama canal. It is the expectation that President Wilson will review the fleet at Hampton Roads and go from there on a naval vessel to the canal, escorted by the fleet.

THE only ground for dispute about the Real Tobacco Chew is when a man doesn't get it. He depends on it for himself, he boosts it to others and nothing will take its place for daily comfort.

A little chew of pure, rich, mellow tobacco—cut fine, short shred—seasoned and sweetened just enough, cuts out so much of the grinding and spitting.

Take a very small chew—less than one-quarter the old size. It will be more satisfying than a mouthful of ordinary tobacco. Just nibble on it until you find the strength chew that suits you. Tuck it away. Then let it rest. See how easily and evenly the real tobacco taste comes, how it satisfies without grinding, how much less you have to spit, how few chews you take to be tobacco satisfied. That's why it is The Real Tobacco Chew. That's why it costs less in the end.

It is a ready chew, cut fine and short shred so that you won't have to grind on it with your teeth. Grind on ordinary candied tobacco makes you spit too much.

The taste of pure, rich tobacco does not need to be covered up with molasses and licorice. Notice how the salt brings out the rich tobacco taste in "Right-Cut."

One small chew takes the place of two big chews of the old kind.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE DEBATE IS ON

(By United Press)

St. Paul, March 4.—The discussion of woman's suffrage was begun by Senator Andrews, of Mankato, at 11:05 this morning. Yellow Jonquils the badge of the suffragettes, were on every desk, while many were also decorated with red roses, the flower of the opposition.

Senator Westlake, of Minneapolis, says he will introduce an amendment to the county option law, excepting Hennepin, Ramsey and St. Louis counties from its workings, after the suffrage debate is over.

For the People

(By United Press)

St. Paul, March 4.—Senator Jones, of Duluth, made a strong appeal for woman suffrage during the debate in the senate this morning, promising to vote for it or any other measure giving the people the right to vote for what they want. "There are women who do not want to vote," said the Duluth senator, "bless their dear hearts, they don't have to." He said the legislature had repeatedly submitted amendments to the people from 300 members of the state bar association asking for some extra judges, yet they were unable to see 35,000 people asking for the right to vote. He would even agree to submit to the people a proposition taxing dogs.

Indian Bill Accepted

(By United Press)

Washington, March 4.—Despite of Senator Gronna's objections the conference report finally accepted the Indian bill.

FATAL FIGHT WITH BANDITS

Two Killed in Clash With Mexican Customs Guards.

San Antonio, Tex., March 4.—In a running fight between eighteen Mexican bandits and twelve Mexican customs guards Monday night forty miles south of Nuevo Laredo, Mex., one bandit and one guard were killed and the leader of the bandits seriously wounded and captured.

Poses are still in pursuit of the surviving members of the gang, which is said to have been looting ranch houses and holding their owners for ransom.

FALLING HAIR MEANS
DANDRUFF IS ACTIVE

Save your hair! Get a 25 cent bottle of Danderine right now—Also stops itching scalp.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and after the first application your hair will take on that life, lustre and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance; an incomparable gloss and softness, but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks' use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp. —Adv.

HYPNOTIZING ANIMALS.

Even the Deadly Cobra May Be Made Perfectly Passive.

Hypnotizing a hen is a trick known to most country boys. It is an old experiment, first described by the Jesuit father, Athanasius Kircher, who laid a hen on the table, held it firmly for a little while and drew a chalk line in front of its eyes, with the result that it remained as if in a catalepsy.

In India it is known that a cobra caught by the neck and gently pressed will soon become stiff and remain so for a considerable time either coiled up or out straight.

A frog fastened to a board and turned suddenly upside down goes into a trance. Other animals are susceptible to this treatment, some more quickly than others.

If you pick up a crab and wave it in the air it becomes immobile, a female bending her legs over her abdomen, a male sticking them out almost straight. The same is true of the fresh water crayfish, only this resists for a much longer time than a crab.

Among the insects catalepsy—commonly known as "death feigning"—is common, and, according to Professor Ernst Mangold, the learned German naturalist, is often a means of saving the life of the insect.

According to Mangold, the hypnotic condition is induced in man by suggestion or physical inhibition, in animals by mechanical inhibition, but in both cases sensory stimuli may assist. These stimuli may be optic (fixing the gaze on some object), or tactile (stroking the skin), or otherwise. Sometimes an absence of wanted stimuli may induce the state, as in the case of absolute silence.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Undiscovered Oceans of Truth.

"We may be justly proud of what has been achieved, but let us not fail to remember with Newton that 'the vast ocean of truth' still lies for the most part 'undiscovered before us.' However marked may be the progress of science, her individual votaries must always feel a sense of humility at the little the best of them is able to contribute toward the general result."—Sir Edward Schaefer, in an address to the British association.

DAYTON CHARGES DROPPED

House Committee to Abandon Impeachment Proceedings.

Washington, March 4.—The house judiciary committee voted, 11 to 4, to drop the impeachment proceedings against Federal Judge Dayton of West Virginia, although the majority report held that the judge's conduct in some instances had been "reprehensible."

Story of a Seeress.

Grant Duff in his diary tells a curious story of a "seeress." Mile. Lenormand was consulted by Robespierre and Napoleon I. Grant Duff's father had a strange experience with Mile. Lenormand. He and a friend went to consult her, and after she had told him what he wanted to know she tried with the friend, but became confused, said her heart failed her and begged him to leave the house. He persuaded her to try again, and again the same result followed. Then, declaring that this had never happened to her before, she lost all patience and implored him to leave instantly. He did so and as he passed out of her door was knocked down and killed by a heavy wagon.

Forks.

Neither the Greeks nor the Romans possessed forks. It was, according to that curious book of travels, "Coryat's Crudities," published in 1611, left to Italy to invent them, because, as the author quaintly observes, "the Italian cannot by any means endure to have his dish touched with hands, seeing that all men's fingers are not alike clean."

A Serious Conclusion.

"Is your daughter still taking music lessons?"
"No," replied Mr. Growcher. "After hearing her sing and play lately I have concluded that she doesn't need a teacher any more. What she wants is a censor."—Washington Star.

Aye, There's the Rub!

"Does she doubt your love, count?"
"Fareful! Worse; she doubts my title."—Exchange.

ROOT ASKS MORE
PAY FOR CLERKS

Congress Doesn't Take Kindly to Suggestion.

HOUSE EMPLOYEES FAVORED

Members Have Seen to It That Their Own Help Is Ample Provided For, and, While Liberality Is Displayed Along Other Lines, Still General Payroll Is Kept Down.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, March 4.—[Special.]—Senator Root made an effort to secure an increase for the government employees and in the course of the discussion pointed out that congress paid its own clerks and other employees 50 per cent more than the other federal clerks received. Of course it has become well known that congress has not only grown extravagant in the number of clerks employed, but it has also been extremely liberal in providing compensation for them. That is natural in view of the fact that congress added 50 per cent to the pay of senators and representatives several years ago. Congress costs just double what it cost twenty years ago; but, although congress is liberal with itself and immediate employees, it did not take kindly to the suggestion of Senator Root for an increase of pay for the other government employees. It is only the large number of rural carriers who secure increases.

Guard Their Work Hours.

While congress may not be so very liberal in the matter of pay for government employees, it is quite careful to guard their work hours and to prevent the introduction of systems of efficiency and timekeeping which meet with the objections of workmen. This is particularly the case where attempts have been made to introduce the Taylor and similar systems into departments where labor is generally employed, such as in the navy yards, arsenals and other places. The fight against these efficiency systems always finds support in congress. There may be votes in sight, as they are generally to be found in labor legislation.

George Comes Once a Year.

Once a year congress brings out George Washington, parades him about the halls and corridors for a time, and then sends him back. The precepts of the Father of His Country are read and commented upon, but that is all Senators and members remark with unctious the wisdom of the farewell address and then ignore it. "No untangling alliances," said Washington, yet dozens of treaties are ratified which entangle us with foreign countries and still more are proposed. "In time of peace prepare for war," said Washington, but the consensus of opinion is that very little has been done in that direction. But in another year we will have it all over again.

Was Not in Politics.

Now, in comparing Washington to Jefferson and Lincoln we find such a difference! These wise men are on duty all the time. They were in politics, both of them, that is the reason. They founded political dynasties, and George Washington only founded a great nation. And we are in politics. That makes the difference.

Conceal Their Grief.

It is observed that the Democrats have been able to conceal their grief over the defeat of the shipping bill. They have not made the bitterness of defeat divide them from their Republican friends, nor have they ostracized the seven Democrats who aided in defeating that measure. Way down deep it is known that some Democrats who supported the shipping bill did not want it.

Fanciful Highways.

There was a brief road discussion in the senate, and inquiry was made as to the expenditure of sums for roads in an experimental way. "The most of that money," said Senator Bristow of Kansas, "has been spent for fanciful highways in different parts of the country and not on roads which will be used to any extent by rural carriers." He asserted that in some states the expenditure had been for roads between cities without reference to the rural mail service.

The strained relations between congress and the federal departments are growing. Once during the consideration of some measure Minority Leader Mann asked:

"Do the departments pay no attention at all to the laws that we pass fixing a limit of cost?"

"They thought it was an impertinence for congress to make any suggestion," replied Chairman Fitzgerald. And when his remark created a laugh he added: "That is no joke. It is a fact."

The All Night Grind.

The all night grind is very hard on some of the older senators. Men along about seventy do not want to remain up all night. It is impossible to close a short session of congress without these all night sittings. The men who used to stand such work well were Allison of Iowa and Hale of Maine. They did not seem to mind working day and night on the appropriation bills. There are a number of senators who seem to stand the work now, but the large majority want to avoid it.

Willing to Relieve Distress Among Colorado Miners.

New York, March 4.—Assistance by the Rockefeller Foundation may be given to Colorado miners and their families who are in distress as a result of recent mining troubles in that state if civic authorities are unable to cope with the need. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., indicated this in a telegram sent to President F. J. Radford of the Chamber of Commerce of Trinidad, Colo.

Mr. Rockefeller's telegram was sent in response to one received from Mr. Radford appealing to him for aid.

Mr. Rockefeller in his telegram said the officers of the Colorado Fuel and Iron company hope that the company itself will be able to provide such relief as is necessary among its own employees.

Chicago, March 4.—Four English military officers who have been purchasing live stock and food supplies for British armies have been recalled from their stations in Montana, Wyoming and California.

Dry City Makes Better Business

So Says Aitkin Merchant Who Makes Interesting Comparisons

Three years ago there were nine saloons running full blast on the street of Aitkin, and at this time the village of Aitkin had piled up an indebtedness of about $45,000, notwithstanding the fact that it had been laboring under a load of saloons for thirty years and had been receiving license all the time.

Drunkenness was rampant. To keep store meant having drunken men in your store every day. The malignant red light was kept burning at a low resort just outside the village.

Then Aitkin went dry but elected a wet council that would not enforce the laws, and we had at least four blind pigs running on our streets, although our county attorney was doing splendid work in securing evidence and indictments to close these places. In March, 1911, Aitkin went wet again and we had three saloons. In March, 1912, Aitkin went dry. If each store has received the same ratio of increase in trade that we have, and we have positive evidence that some of them have, it means that from $100 to $500 daily, or taking the lowest figure, $400, it means that $142,000 have been saved to legitimate channels of trade in Aitkin in the past dry year. This money has gone into the comforts of life, into home and farm improvements, into taxable property, if you please, that will bring in a regular legitimate income to county, state and village treasuries. MAYOR DROPS THE CHIEF OF POLICE

S. W. Quinn, Who Served on the Force for Many Years, Receives Notice of Dismissal

MAYOR CALLS SPECIAL MEETING

Friday Evening Council to Consider Appointment of New Chief, Police Matters, City Finances

Chief S. W. Quinn, for many years connected with the police department, has received his dismissal from Mayor Henning at the same time that the mayor has called a special meeting of the council, Friday evening, March 5, to act upon his appointment of a new chief and other business in connection with the operation of the police department.

There is also to be considered the financial condition of the city, the salaries of city officials and employees and other business.

The mayor, it is said, claimed that Chief Quinn was not qualified to handle the business and could not work in harmony with the force, and that he would dispense with his services Friday night at 6 o'clock.

As to the competency of Chief Quinn Brainerd people are aware that he has seen six years service as a police officer and during all that time it is remembered that there has not been lodged with the council or police committee a single word of complaint against him. He was chief under Mayor Ousdahl, patrolman under Mayor Dunn, and chief under Mayor Henning.

AUGUST CARLSON PASSED AWAY

Well Known Brainerd Shop Man Died at a Hospital, Lived in City 32 Years

August Carlson, of 1323 Pine Street Southeast, aged 57, a well known shop man of the city, died this morning at 10 o'clock at a local hospital. He had been sick eight weeks, suffering from rheumatism and this and a complication of diseases was the cause of his demise. He had lived 32 years in Brainerd and during nearly all of that time had been employed at the Northern Pacific railway shops.

He leaves a wife, Mrs. Minnie Carlson, five daughters, the Misses Anna, Ida, Hilda, Sigrid and Mabel, and one son, Edwin. He was a member of the Swedish Lutheran church and held membership in the Brotherhood of American Yeomen Homestead No. 502, the Workmen and the North Star Lodges.

The funeral will be held from the Swedish Lutheran church, on Monday afternoon, it is believed. It will be definitely announced when a brother, Oscar Carlson, of Portland, Ore., can be communicated with. A sister, Mrs. John Haggblom, lives in Astoria, Ore.

The sympathy of their many friends and neighbors is extended to the family in its sad bereavement.

Duluth, Minn., Mar. 4.—Charles Mudge, Brainerd, was elected Great Picket of the Knights of the Macabees of Minnesota.

What was probably the largest convention ever held by the Macabees opened in Duluth Wednesday. There were 47 accredited delegates, 195 alternates and 350 visitors from Duluth and other points. Great growth and development both numerically and financially were reported from all parts of the state.

The delegates were given the keys of the city by Commissioner W. A. Hicken, who spoke in place of Mayor W. I. Prince now in St. Paul. The response was delivered by Dr. E. H. Haas of St. Paul, great commander of the Macabees.

Reports covering the last four years deaths. To the widows and orphans were made. There have been 191 of the deceased members the order has paid $246,000 and $6,000 relief has been paid directly. In the four years the order has written more than $2,475,000 insurance and 2,057 policies have been taken out. The average policy is for $1,040. The average cost for each policy was less than $8 and the cost of management for each $1,000 has been $1.20. The membership in the state has nearly doubled.

Among the noted guests of the convention was D. P. Marley, of Detroit, Mich., supreme commander of the order. Eight picked degree teams exemplified degree work. Election of officers occurred today, on the closing day of the convention.

A fast game of basketball is assured when the Brainerd high school meets Sauk Center, which will probably be the last game on the home floor this season.

Early in the season Sauk Center defeated Brainerd at Sauk Center by a close score. The local boys have improved considerably since then and are confident that they can turn the tables on the visitors.

Every basketball enthusiast should be out and help the boys win.

NEW CHARTER IS DISCUSSED

Carl Zapffe, of the Charter Commission, Gives a Lengthy Review of the Proposed Charter

AT THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Claims City Faces Crisis Under Old Charter—Other Speakers are Heard at Meeting

The new charter was dissected and discussed at the Chamber of Commerce Wednesday evening. Carl Zapffe, of the commission, made an address which covered all the ramifications of the charter, an address which for weighty thought has rarely been equalled in Brainerd.

Features of New Charter Summarized

1. A council of five or seven for purely legislative work, elected for a two-year period.
2. Councilmen are nominated by petition and run on a non-partisan ticket.
3. Councilmen are nominated from among the residents of their ward and one is elected from each ward as representatives from that ward, but two others are voted on by the entire city.
4. Council meets once a month, regularly. They have no committee work.
5. Council elects a city manager whose duties are purely administrative. Term is indefinite. He is responsible for the welfare of the city. Appoints all subordinates; approved by the council. Appoints a competent clerk and an engineer as assistants.
6. This clerk is also secretary or clerk for the commission and the municipal court.
7. All employees are under civil service.
8. Initiative, referendum and recall provided for.
9. Preferential voting, first second and third choice.
10. Abolishes the functions of the present official known as mayor. This title is conferred, however, upon the city manager, but for purely constitutional reasons.
11. Has no veto power.
12. Eliminates all boards except library board, and abolishes the city treasurer, assessor, weighmaster, poundmaster, building inspector and street commissioner, but provides in other manners for the work usually performed by them.

Rev. G. P. Sheridan presided at the meeting. The parlors were crowded with earnest men intent upon hearing the features of the charter.

"What I have to say is rather impromptu," said Mr. Zapffe, "and I will govern myself by some old notes which I preserved from last year's work. There is so much more to say today than a year ago that I do not know where to begin, or where I will end. I do not want to pounce at once into the details pertaining to the new charter because there are some other things I want you to know and I want to know that you do know them because the new charter is the outgrowth of conditions, and is not a fad nor a one-man's fancy. And I want you to understand this entire situation, for it is not enough that you should know what the new charter contains and then vote for it, but I want you to get saturated with it so you will talk about it and get others to vote for it.

"I have a good reason for making my last assertion. A charter to carry, must get four-sevenths of the biggest vote cast at the election for any one candidate, amendment, or other feature. For example, our next election in April is a general election. Everybody knows that the candidate for mayor draw more votes than, say the treasurer, and they will also get more than the charter, but the charter, in order to carry, would have to get four-sevenths of the votes cast for mayor, thus it is most important, yes, absolutely necessary that you vote for the charter. Every one failing to vote on this question is a vote against the charter. That is the odds we are up against, and our city council did it against the wishes of the charter commission. Motive? Ask the council.

"You are going to vote on a brand new charter, not on amendments. Our present charter has outlived its usefulness. It is obsolete. Four former city attorneys attest to the obstacles and difficulties encountered. These troubles are not aware to you individuals unless you work under the charter or diligently study it and other charters. No one or two amendments will patch it up. It would take 50 or more to bring it up to date.

"The chances for carrying these amendments are 1000 to 1. Observe the results on 10 amendments at last fall state elections. The chances are that the one important amendment of the 50 would fail and thereby knock the stuffings out of the whole batch, for they would mostly be interdependent, if not all together, at least in groups. So you are confronted with an entire charter, and the question now resolves itself into 'Do we need a new charter' and 'Is the proposed charter the right one.' My discussion is principally on the second question. Even our most discordant elements are nearly wholly agreed on the first question.

"Remember, the charter commission consists of 14 freeholders of this city appointed by the district court. If you think different shades of opinion do not exist there, attend their sessions and find out for yourselves. Nevertheless, any charter is a give and take and a shuffle, no matter who frames it. To every one of you some little feature therein may not appeal to you, but no charter can ever or will ever satisfy everybody. The framers are not endowed with an Almighty spirit, neither are you.

"But I am firm in the statement that we are giving you by all means a document with a sound foundation to build upon, and will trust to the future to take care of the superstructure without fear of failure. Therefore don't quibble over any little point. See if the whole thing works as a whole, is right in principle, and right and tried in practice.

"Our commission labored on this matter nine months last year, meeting once every week, and three months this year. We have read or examined other charters, we know our own state of affairs in this city and a big majority of the commission is heart and soul for this charter.

"Gentlemen, have you stopped to consider what will happen to Brainerd within the next six months? Of course you are aware now that there is a wet and dry campaign on in this town. You are going to vote on that question too in April. I am told on reliable authority that approximately 500 have already signed the dry petition. What will the vote be? Of course you know that the county can now also vote on this measure. If the city fails the county may carry. County option has just become a law. Of course you all know that we are in the Indian belt and it is up to Uncle Sam to close us up whether we want it or not.

"Is a dry Brainerd inevitable? Do you know that we are then to be without $21,000 of liquor license money for our expense fund? The fund with which to pay our current expenses will be short. Already our council is discharging policemen, cutting out lights and praying that there may not be need to pay the volunteer firemen between now and April so as to play even.

"Our administrative affairs are today built dependent on that money, and your old charter makes no provision for the city to raise money where its taxes fall short to make up this deficit. Behold Fergus Falls, same fix, only worse, for there the voters refused, even after all was said and all efforts made to raise money, to vote for remedial measures. A deadlock exists and there are no lights in town. Our commission foresaw this plight over a year ago when we were not threatened like we are today and last year's charter provides for just such an emergency.

"If you fail to carry the charter at the general election," continued Mr. Zapffe, "the fix you are in will demand a special election when Brainerd goes dry, or you won't have money to pay your salaries and that means no work.

"In a city government there are two fundamental ends to be kept in view. The first is to provide the best means of determining policies; the second is to provide the best means of carrying them out. In other words, to provide the best mechanism by which the people's will can express itself; and, second, to provide the highest efficiency of administration. This involves the idea of 'centralized management' and centralized management you get only with the city manager plan of government.

"Just so long as the people of this or any other community with inferior machinery undertake to meet centralized management and administrative machinery of any other large body, just so long will that body be able, in nine cases out of ten, to accomplish what it wishes, while the people of the community are wondering how it happened. That's Brainerd under the old charter."

Sketching in rapid outline Mr. Zapffe proposed salaries for the duties, suggested under the new charter. A good city manager could be secured for $3,000 a year. His duties would be city health officer, police chief, fire chief, assessor, weighmaster, poundmaster, park board, public utilities, treasurer. His stenographer would draw $600 a year.

The city clerk, salary $1,800, would

IT GOES without saying that a girl's figure should not be confined in any way, but that it should be left free and unhampered to develop gradually and naturally. A woman's corset, no matter how much of a girdle, is not at all the garment to put on a girl's figure. A developing girl requires a "girl's corset," fashioned especially for her figure. Royal Worcester Corsets are such corsets designed on moderate lines, made of soft pliable materials with very light boning, which features render them the proper and comfortable support for a girl's figure. Royal Worcester corsets for girls are the garments for growing girls to wear. There are splendid models which we have to show to you.

be clerk of council, clerk of court and public utilities collector.

The city engineer, salary $2,000, would be building inspector, street commissioner, with bridges, sewers and sidewalks under his jurisdiction, repair work, profile, contracts. The municipal judge would draw $1,000 and the city attorney $750. These figures, it must be understood, were only suggestions. The council gets the salaries.

Mayor Henning spoke of the financial condition of the city, of the cost of the upkeep of the new city hall, a new expense. If the city went dry, Brainerd would lose $21,000 revenue from the saloons. City salaries averaged $2,000 a month. Some of the money coming in on the March settlement of taxes had already been used by the city. If the saloons were wiped out, there would be little revenue received in July, when the 21 saloons could then not renew their licenses of $1,000 each.

At the end of the discussion of the charter and its provisions a motion carried to refer the same for consideration to the public affairs and city committees.

On motion a vote of thanks was given the charter commission and the mayor.

School Board Engages Popular School Superintendent at a Salary of $2,400

At the school board meeting Prof. W. C. Cobb was re-elected as superintendent of the city schools for the year beginning March 1, 1915, to July 31, 1916, at a salary of $2,400. Vice President George D. LaBau presided. R. R. Wise and R. J. Hartley were absent. A communication was received from the Teachers league thanking the board for adopting resolutions urging the passing of the Teachers Retirement Fund Bill.

Engineer Thomas Lynch, of Eveleth, wrote the board to the effect that plans and specifications had been completed for the ventilating system at the Lincoln school and that the same were now in the hands of the state board for inspection. The plans would be returned to Brainerd about March 10. The matter was left with the building committee, and if they see fit the secretary can call a special meeting for the board to pass on them.

The finance committee reported having checked up the quarterly reports. The Easter vacation will begin at the close of school on Thursday, April 1. Schools will re-open on April 12.

On motion, the treasurer and secretary were authorized to pay off teachers at Easter time upon approval of the payroll by the finance committee. The board instructed the secretary to make application to the state board for the $2,500 state aid to be used for an agricultural department.

A special committee was appointed to confer with the music supervisor, Miss Mabel B. Harrison, regarding a piano for the school auditorium.

he felt that a superior authority should handle so delicate a situation. The governor had agreed and ordered a troop of cavalry to the "Master Key" to preserve order. It was just when Wilkerson had seen his chance for a grand coup that the troopers arrived.

Ruth, with some of the women, had taken refuge in John's house on the hill, with old Tom Kane as their bodyguard. Wilkerson knew that if he could capture Ruth he could make his own terms. He directed several of his men to make a detour around the hill and effect this. Meanwhile he set fire to a cabin below in order to distract the attention of Dorr and his men.

The ruse had nearly succeeded but for Kane's quickness. Though he had not used his gun for many years, he had lost none of his old time skill, and when the marauders made their final dash on the porch of the house the cook, with a single glance over his shoulder, shot from the hip. His man tumbled dead at Ruth's feet, and his companions sneaked back.

At that instant the cavalry rushed in, and before five minutes were passed their commander had separated the combatants and proceeded to disarm them.

He then called Dorr and Wilkerson to him and curtly stated that his orders were to see that there was no trouble. "What your quarrel is I don't know," he said.

Wilkerson tried to argue, but neither the officer nor the sheriff, who now arrived, would listen to him. They also turned a deaf ear to John Dorr's statement of Wilkerson's crimes, including the kidnapping of Ruth in San Francisco.

"If you have anything against Wilkerson," the sheriff asserted, "swear out a warrant for him. I'll serve it quick enough."

With this John must perforce be satisfied, but after a conference with Kane it was agreed that the latter should go to the county seat and make formal complaint and procure a warrant for Wilkerson's arrest on the ground of forgery.

"You and I know those deeds he flourishes aren't genuine," John said earnestly. "Let's make it an issue and try it in court. At any rate, we'll be rid of him for awhile."

"I know you're right," the old cook assented heartily. "I'll be off today."

With these troopers around the grensers won't dare do anything openly. But keep your eyes open, John! They will sneak something across if they can."

"Trust me for that," was the reassuring response.

But when Kane had gone Dorr realized that he was in a nasty predicament. Wilkerson was desperately playing so bold a game that it would take every resource at his disposal to meet him successfully. Ruth must be protected in her rights. The "Master Key" mine must remain in her possession undisturbed. That would be impossible until Wilkerson was eliminated. And that man was after great stakes; otherwise he would never have ventured so far.

As he debated this inwardly John went over in memory all the events of the brief period since old Thomas Gallon had died, leaving his daughter in his charge. Before his mind's eye ran the pictures of the last scenes and then—

Like a flash it came to him! What was in that letter the old man had so carefully cherished and handed him at the last? Had Gallon foreseen something like this and prepared for it? In his last days had his failing powers concentrated on his single aim and evolved a final safeguard for the "Master Key?"

With the sealed letter in his hand John Dorr stared at the superscription: Not to be opened until my daughter's eighteenth birthday or before then if her welfare is threatened.

Quickly he tore the envelope open. The inclosure fell out in two portions. He put them together, with a muttered ejaculation at his own carelessness and read the crabbled script.

Vim Light Delivery

You can't afford to waste your time and money any longer on horses at $250 a head, that are liable at any time to drop dead from heart failure, be overcome in the heat of summer, freeze and suffer in the cold of winter, run away and spill loads of customers goods, smash up $150 delivery wagons, and require a faithful servant to serve meals and clean stables, whether working or not, Sunday's holidays or working days when you can buy a Vim light delivery truck for $635.
